Andrew is a leading lawyer in the areas of financial restructuring, bankruptcy litigation, complex commercial litigation, and corporate governance litigation. Andrew's skill set distinguishes him from the field: he is equally adept at leading a restructuring transaction (given his extensive restructuring experience) or a litigation (given his extensive first-chair trial experience). Andrew frequently combines those skills for the benefit of his clients, leveraging litigation, whether in the bankruptcy proceeding itself or in other venues, to maximize creditors' recovery. His creative solutions to complex disputes have earned him the trust and loyalty of his prominent clients.

Andrew has been featured in Chambers USA and the Legal 500, with clients describing him as "impressive." Andrew was a member of Law360's 2020 Bankruptcy Editorial Advisory Board and was named a 2017 Outstanding Restructuring Lawyer by Turnarounds & Workouts. Andrew has been featured as a Super Lawyer for eight consecutive years.

Before co-founding Glenn Agre Bergman & Fuentes, Andrew was a partner of Kasowitz Benson Torres and an associate of Debevoise & Plimpton.
